

HHGS Business Relations Policy

Introduction

The purpose of the Business Relations Policy is to ensure that all companies that are associated with HHGS hold a high quality. The policy deals with companies that receive exposure through their partnership with HHGS and in effect, is of special significance when considering larger partnerships. In case of any unclarities and questions, contact the Head of Business Relations in the Student Union board.

The Head of Business Relations for HHGS and all Heads of Business Relations' within HHGS must always conduct extensive research on companies before entering into an agreement with them. When researching companies, the Head of Business Relations must ensure that the company fits the following profile:

Chapter 1 General Regulations

- §1 In accordance with the HHGS marketing policy, HHGS is not permitted to enter into any agreements where marketing of any kind of drugs, sex, party-political events is included.
- §2 HHGS is not permitted to enter into an agreement where there is an apparent risk of damaging HHGS brand. Examples of apparent risks of damaging HHGS brand can include, but is not limited to, companies that: break national laws, deceive their customers, or sell products that are a hazard for its users.
- §3 The company must provide fair conditions to its employees if they wish to promote job opportunities to HHGS members.
- §4 The company must be of relevance to HHGS members and must be able to provide some form of value.

Chapter 2 Responsibility

- §1 The Head of Business Relations of the HHGS Board is responsible for updating and following-up this policy. If you have any questions about this policy, contact the Head of Business Relations of HHGS Board.
