OUR REASON FOR BEING

This is our Reason for Being. The foundation on which the Student Union of The School of Business, Economics and Law stands. At HHGS we are extremely passionate about what we do and for this engagement to live on for generations to come, we have created a unique set of values that we practically live by.

This document is hence both a promise and an offer – to you, to us and to future students at Handels.

This is us, The Student Union of The School of Business, Economics and Law.

An aerial photograph of a large suspension bridge spanning a wide body of water. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, orange glow across the sky and reflecting on the water. The bridge has two tall, dark towers and white cables. In the foreground, there are some buildings and a parking lot. The overall scene is peaceful and scenic.

TOGETHER WE SHAPE OUR FUTURE

TOGETHER WE SHAPE OUR FUTURE

You have 365 days a year to form the life you are living. We believe that great things are achieved when people are brought together. Great things such as friendships, insights and the opportunity to create impact. Let's be the change we want to see.

Welcome to the Student Union of The School of Business, Economics and Law – together we shape our future.

WE WELCOME

We've been welcoming students to the world of Handels since 1926. Regardless of whom you are, where you come from and whichever path you choose to take for your journey ahead, we venture forward – together.

WE INSPIRE ★

Everyone has the possibility to make a difference.

For you, for her, for him: for us. No project is too small, neither too big because we do it together.

Whether it's to secure the quality of our education or make thousands of students feel at home.

WE ENCOURAGE

We believe that success isn't built on success itself. It's built on the courage to take a leap, explore and even fall. It's in the challenges we thrive and all along the way we will support, lift and encourage each other – at all times, every day.
